Overview: 163 - Alhaurin el Grande, a dream town with a Spanish atmosphere just 25 minutes from Malaga airport and the beaches of the Costa del Sol. Al Ándalus presents this little gem due to its location and condition, almost brand new, comfortable and well structured, in the heart of the town of Alhaurin el Grande but in a quiet and safe area. Building of modern structure with all the facilities. Upon entering this little gem of a penthouse, the first thing that catches your eye is its lightness and freshness. We are received by a spacious living-dining room with large windows; On the right hand we find an almost new and quite spacious kitchen, fully equipped and with a space to eat, plenty of space to store things. Through a corridor, we have a bedroom with its built-in wardrobe and a small bathroom, a second spacious bedroom with its modern bathroom and a custom-made dressing room,. A space was built for a rather curious and comfortable office, with views to the terrace. Just before going out onto the terrace, we find the very complete, bright and functional laundry room. Reaching the back of the apartment, we are surprised by a quite large and fantastic terrace with beautiful views to the mountains. On the same building you can have two parking spaces and two storage rooms for 29.500€. Come and see by yourself! We are waiting for you.
