Overview:Off-plan villa, first line golf, in the prestigious Marbella Club Golf resort. The Marbella golf club, golfers receive a level of service to be expected of a five-star golf resort. At the Marbella Club Golf Resort, they collect your clubs and place them on your buggy to remove any stress or strain associated with more commercial clubs. Here nothing is too much trouble so you can relax and focus on your game. The Marbella Club House is a superbly located thatched cottage overlooking the Marbella Club golf courses and the lake of the 1st hole, offering the perfect surroundings to relax and unwind after a round. The restaurant of the Marbella Club Golf Resort is renowned for its high level of service and excellent food. The restaurant has become a venue for lunch for non-golfers looking for seclusion, tranquility and a high standard of Mediterranean cuisine. All the staff was selected from both the Marbella Club and Puente Romano and the cuisine is supervised by Juan Galvez, the Michelin Starred Executive Chef of the Marbella Club. On cooler days, the open log fire with rustic style furniture, provide the atmosphere of a hunting lodge in keeping with the early aristocratic traditions of the Marbella Club. The Marbella Club Hotel Golf Resort is a world class Marbella golf course in Costa del Sol that exceeds even the highest expectations. With a total length of 6,247m, the golf course is enhanced by carefully contoured fairways, beautiful waterfalls, lakes and strategically placed bunkers, as well as undulating and protected greens, maintained to perfection. The in-house British P.G.A. Professional, Gary Vautier, has extensive experience teaching all aspects of the game at all levels of ability, and is available to answer your queries, upon request, several times a week. With limited play and an average of 30 minutes between tee times, over-crowded rounds are not a concern and morning tee times are guaranteed. Players need only concentrate on their game and enjoy a superb day of golf that meets the expectations of the most demanding fans of the sport.
