Therefore, there is the possibility of expanding the usable space in this area, making it even more versatile. It is located on a pedestrianised street above the main road, Avenida de Europa, almost on the corner with Calle Gaucín. Its glass façade provides excellent visibility, ensuring that your business won't go unnoticed. The area is perfectly connected to practically all areas of Málaga, as it is very close to city buses and the metro, which take you to Málaga city centre, as well as intercity buses and the suburban train, which are just a few steps away and connect us to the airport and the west coast. The nearest beach, La Misericordia, is just a few minutes' drive away and can also be reached on foot. There are also all kinds of services nearby, such as supermarkets, for the convenience of buyers and their potential customers. Agency fees are included in the price. The Abbreviated Information Document is available upon request.
